

Shakespeare Aloud!

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Friday, June 20 at 6:00 p.m.
Rockside Vineyard

In celebration of William Shakespeare's 450th birthday, the Fairfield County District Library's Garret Players, in cooperation with Rockside Vineyard, presents our first-ever community Shakespeare read-aloud. We'll be reading the Bard's comedy -

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Wouldn't you say that the best way to read a Shakespeare play is OUT LOUD and with FRIENDS? You're invited to have a turn reading in our Shakespeare circle. We welcome all voices and all dialects. This event is intended to be fun and relaxed so bring your imagination and especially your sense of humor!

HOW IT WORKS: The reading will begin promptly at 6:00 p.m. There will be a circle of chairs with character names assigned to each chair. Anyone is invited to enter the reading circle as the moderator opens chairs for new readers. Some copies of the play will be available but please bring along your own if you have one. Also, bring along a lawn chair or blanket to just listen or while you're waiting to read. Listeners may be asked to pipe in for crowd scenes!

Rockside Vineyard invites you to bring your own munchies. The Vineyard features 12 wines made on site. Samples and bottles are available to purchase. The Vineyard is located on State Route 37 just north of Rainbow Drive (2363 Lancaster Newark Rd. NE).
